The Court has received the Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR") in this case. The parties have not objected to the PSR. See Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The government adopted the PSR. (Filing No. 127.) The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 2005 WL 50108 (U.S. Jan. 12, 2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

It appears that the Defendant's name is misspelled throughout the PSR and sentencing recommendation. These documents shall be corrected before they are sent to the Bureau of Prisons.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The parties are notified that my tentative findings are that the PSR is correct in all respects, with the exception of the spelling of the Defendant's name;
2. The spelling of the Defendant's name shall be corrected in the PSR and the sentencing recommendation before those documents are sent to the Bureau of Prisons;
3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

4. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 2 of this Order, my tentative findings may become final; and

5. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 7th day of June, 2007.
